

LECTURER AT
TABERNACLE TODAY

J. F. Rutherford Will Deliver Address Upon
"Future Life."

After a somewhat trying experience account of delays incident to the snowstorms which have impeded traffic in the past two or days, Judge J. F. Rutherford of Mass., arrived in Salt Lake late yesterday.

Judge is to deliver a lecture in tabernacle this afternoon, his subject being "Future Life of Men and Women." The lecture will commence at 7 o'clock. Judge William H. King will act as the meeting and introduce the distinguished lecturer. Professor J. McClellan will render selections on the great pipe organ as the accompaniment.

Account of the international discussion given by Judge Rutherford is anticipated that the tabernacle will be filled with interested audience. The lecture is constructed upon higher lines of thought and study, it is delivered in a style of compelling forcefulness that brings who hear it into close contact with the subject and the reasoning and philosophy of its deductions and conclusions.

There is to be no admission fee, the lecture being given free opportunity interested in the world-absorbing subject to hear the most advanced thought on the subject. It is desired that the building on time, so that the lecture may begin promptly at the appointed hour.

BY MANAGER OF REX

terrible snowfall, which afflicted the states and delayed railroad travel from the east, did not spare the west. The films for the bill announced elsewhere in The Tribune for this performance are on a train which is in the storm belt. As soon as the state of affairs, Manager has hastened to secure permission to cancel the bill given yesterday. has added another picture to it, who witnessed yesterday's bill was disposed to congratulate today's on the fact that it will be given especially the three-part animal feature, "The Raid of the Human Terrors," is filled with exciting incidents of life in India, including fighting with tigers and alligators and between British troops and savages. The Kerrigan feature, "The Woman," depicts how the life of a derelict, invited to a banquet by the revelers who brought him in their amusement, "Caught at His Own Game," is a comedy, wherein a rich man for a jest and has the money from her afterward. "An Elephant on His Hands," shown for the first time, tells the troubles of a man who pets and has an elephant turned to him by a "friend." The bill will run this afternoon and evening.

VOICE IS GIVEN ON CHRISTMAS PARCELS

Early and Avoid the Rush, Is One of the Injunctions Given.

Instructions are issued by the postoffice department concerning the preparation of Christmas parcels to be transmitted through the mails, and together these comes the injunction to be early and avoid the rush.

The useful suggestions are the following: Addresses should be complete and plainly written in ink. The name and address of the sender should be placed on the upper left-hand corner, the name and address of the addressee on the lower right-hand corner, and the stamps on the upper right-hand corner of parcels.
If a tag is used, the name and address of the sender and addressee should also be written on the wrapping of the parcel, for use should become detached.

Patrons are cautioned against using Christmas stamps or other marks or stickers, other than postage stamps, on the address side of any matter, as such matter is irrevocably rendered unavailable. In the use of Christmas stickers, care should be taken not to seal parcels with, as sealed parcels are unavailable at the fourth-class rate of postage, which necessitates their being returned or held for postage, causing delay and possible appointment.

Parcels weighing four ounces or less may be mailed in street packing boxes as heretofore, the rate being uniformly 1 cent for each ounce or fraction thereof. Parcels weighing over four ounces must be mailed at the mail office near one of its stations, or at a store or department store station.

REX THEATER

Storms, which delayed trains, prevented the receipt of the films advertised elsewhere in this paper for today's bill at the REX. Immediately after learning the facts we made arrangements to retain for today's performance the great, three-part animal feature, "The Raid of the Human Terrors," and the rest of the bill which pleased our patrons so much yesterday. This bill, originally released to us for one day only, will be given in full, with another picture added, this afternoon and evening. The complete bill appears below.
